Join Japanese-language students and native Japanese speakers at this informal gathering to practice Japanese and English! Anyone with some Japanese and English language experience is welcome to attend.

For 30 minutes during our Jan. 27th meeting, special guest Souheki Mori will demonstrate the intricacies of Sado (茶道), the Japanese tea ceremony, and explain a brief history of this ritual. A few lucky Nihongo Chat participants will be able to take part! After the demonstration, we will move back to the usual activity of practicing conversational skills.

Please RSVP to language@japansociety.org or 212-715-1293 with your first and last name, email address, phone number, and level (beginner, intermediate, advanced, native).
