Japan Society 2023 Annual Dinner Frequently Asked Questions

Will the Annual Dinner take place in person this year? What is the format?

Yes, we are planning to hold the 2023 Annual Dinner in person. The format will be the same as pre-Covid Annual Dinners (standing receptions followed by a seated dinner). However, should federal, state, city or CDC regulations or recommendations dictate, the event may be held as a hybrid or fully-virtual event.

How much of my contribution is tax-deductible?

Amounts in excess of $2,950 per table or $295 per ticket is tax-deductible.

How many guests will be seated at each table?

There are 10 seats per table.

Should our guests RSVP to Japan Society directly?

No, please have your guests notify you if they are attending, then send the list of guests to Japan Society using the template we have provided.

Will this event be socially distanced?

No. This event will be at full capacity.

Do guests need to be vaccinated?

Japan Society strongly encourages everyone attending to be up-to-date on COVID-19 vaccines, including any boosters for which they are eligible, but vaccination is not required to attend.

Do guests need to take a test?

We encourage all attendees take a test the day of the event. Rapid/home tests are acceptable. Guests are not required to show proof of negative test at the door. If you have symptoms, please stay home.

Will guests need to wear a mask?

Masks are encouraged when not actively eating or drinking.
