

2023 WINTER 5-WEEK CONVERSATIONAL JAPANESE

These Conversational Japanese courses are structured to supplement our core curriculum Japanese Courses (Levels 1-13) of the 10-week semester. Courses are conversation-intensive, with the aim of strengthening the student's ability to communicate effectively. The course materials emphasize vocabulary and grammar that are useful in everyday activities. Using the Marugoto textbooks, the priority is to practice language used in real-life situations, and grammar is taught through meaningful context rather than targeted study.

If you are unsure of which Conversational level is right for you, please take a look at the sample materials for each class linked in the course descriptions, or the Level Guide \(Conversational Levels\).

More course options at all levels will be offered in the upcoming 10-week semester.

Individuals must be 16 or older to register for these courses. (For younger students, please see Japanese for Youth: Ages 12 to 15.)

Please note that some courses are online via Zoom, and others are in-person at Japan Society in NYC. All times listed are New York time (ET).

Make-Up Classes: Please attend the course you have registered for as much as possible. However, if you are an online student and will miss a class, you may arrange a make-up class in a different online or in-person section in the same semester. Ideally, this would cover the same material as your missed class, but these options are very limited this Winter semester. However, we welcome you to schedule a make-up even if it is in a different course type/level for extra practice. More information on how to schedule a make-up class will be provided in the Welcome Email.

IN-PERSON COURSES ONLY:

Japan Society strongly encourages everyone entering the building to be up to date on COVID-19 vaccines, including any boosters for which they are eligible. In-person students do not need to provide proof of vaccination and booster.

Masks, particularly respirator-style (KN95, N95, KF94, etc.), are strongly recommended but are no longer required. A mask can be provided at the Welcome Desk upon request.

Japan Society retains the right to cancel a class at its discretion due to inclement weather or other circumstances. In such circumstances the office will determine the best option for replacement class(es), which may be online or on another date. By signing up for this course, you assume this risk and understand that circumstances may change.
