2025 SPRING JAPANESE COURSES

This 10-week semester offers our core curriculum of Japanese Courses (Levels 1 – 13). With a full span of levels and special topic courses, beginner to advanced students can learn to speak, read, and write Japanese. These courses are designed for adults aged 18 and above.

Courses are listed by increasing difficulty/level. The letter designates a different time/date/section, not an increase of level (e.g., 1-A and 1-B are different sections but both cover Level 1).

Please Note: Most courses above Level 9 are designed to be taken repeatedly. It is expected that students take the same level multiple semesters before moving to the next level.

Enrollment in kanji courses alongside the core curriculum (numbered levels) is recommended for students at Level 5 and above.

For tuition, how to register, and more course details, please see further down after the course list.

New students with no previous background in Japanese should enroll in a Level 1 course.

Students with some background should refer to the Japanese Level Guide or course textbooks to determine the most appropriate class.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Courses are either online via Zoom or in-person at Japan Society in NYC. All times are New York time (ET).

ONLINE COURSES: To participate fully, you will need access to a device with internet, microphone, and camera (such as a laptop, tablet, or smartphone).

IN-PERSON COURSES: In the event of inclement weather or other circumstances, a class session may need to be conducted online or on another date. By signing up for a course, you assume this risk and understand that circumstances may change. Please see full details under “How to Register.”

JAPANESE LEVEL 1 (for students with no (or little) basic grammar knowledge in Japanese, meets once a week) The course is designed to introduce elementary Japanese. Basic vocabulary, grammar and sentence structures will be taught in romaji (Japanese written phonetically in the Roman alphabet) so students can carry on a simple conversation. Hiragana and some introductory kanji will be introduced.

This course will introduce students to the following:

- X wa Y desu.
- Question sentences
- This/that/which
- Here/there/over there/where
- Verb conjugation (present tense)
- Sentence particles

Required Text: Genki I, 3rd Edition (Ch. 1-3)

JAPANESE LEVEL 1&2 (for students with no (or little) basic grammar knowledge in Japanese, meets twice a week)

This fast-track course covers Levels 1 and 2 in one semester, and is designed to introduce elementary Japanese.

Level 1: Basic vocabulary, grammar and sentence structures will be taught in romaji (Japanese written phonetically in the Roman alphabet) so students can carry on a simple conversation. Hiragana and some introductory kanji will be introduced. This course will introduce students to the following:

- X wa Y desu.
- Question sentences
- This/that/which
- Here/there/over there/where
- Verb conjugation (present tense)
- Sentence particles

Level 2: Students will continue to develop their beginners' level language skills in basic Japanese as they begin to apply the past tense and are introduced to new words, grammar, and expressions. Recognition of hiragana is expected as less romaji will be used. Katakana and a few more kanji will be introduced. Students will be introduced to the following:

- X ga arimasu/imasu.
- Location description
- Adjectives (present and past tense)
- Suki (na)/ Kirai (na)
- mashou ka

REVIEW: GENKI I (Prerequisite: Japanese 5, or equivalent)

This course is designed for students who have completed Level 5, but feel the need to review the content of the Genki I textbook before moving up to Level 6. The course focuses on reviewing the grammar points and increasing vocabulary so that students gain more confidence in speaking Japanese with an accurate command of grammar. Special focus will be placed on: verb conjugation, adjective conjugation, te-form/ta-form, and nai-form. Also, common mistakes in the use of particles (は、が、を、に、で、と) and expressions such as これ／この、どの／どんな、なに／なん will be addressed. Upon completion of this course, students will be able to speak Japanese more comfortably with a refreshed grasp of grammar. The Genki I textbook content will be referenced, but no textbook is required.

REVIEW: GENKI II (Prerequisite: Japanese 9, or concurrently with Japanese 9, or equivalent.)

There are certain grammar points that many intermediate-level students struggle with. This course offers a guided review on these notorious grammar points, including Causative-Passive, Transitive vs. Intransitive verbs, and Keigo. Students will be invited to dive into the mechanism as well as the psychology behind these grammar points through drills and speaking practice. This class will help to scatter away clouds of confusion students may have had for a long time. It will serve as a confidence booster on key grammar.

This class will reinforce students' understanding and usage of grammar points including:

- Week 1: Particles
- Week 2: Transitive vs. Intransitive
- Week 3: Conditional: ~たら、~と、~ば、~なら
- Week 4: Doing a favor: ~てあげる、~てもらう、~てくれる
- Week 5: Passive & Causative-Passive
- Week 6: Noun modifiers
- Week 7: Conjecture: ~だろう、~かも知れない、~らしい、~ようだ、~はずだ、~みたいだ
- Week 8: Honorifics: 尊敬語、謙譲語
- Week 9 & 10: Semester Review, Q&A

The Genki II textbook content will be referenced, but no textbook is required.

Kigaru na Kaiwa (Prerequisite: Japanese 9, or equivalent)

Kigaru na Kaiwa roughly translates to “easy conversation without hesitation.” This course is recommended for students who wish to train their conversational skills in Japanese beyond the Genki II textbook content. Students will practice sharing their thoughts on various topics and situations relating to the arts, food, technology, etc., utilizing interesting reading materials or current news. Useful conversational techniques will also be introduced, such as あいづち (response words), ice breakers, finding common interests to talk about, and more. No textbook required.

KANJI N3 (Recommended for students considering Level 10, or taking with Level 10 concurrently, or equivalent)

The N3 test requires knowledge of approximately 370 new kanji (in addition to the 280 required for N4 and N5). In this course, we will focus on mastering some of these new kanji (approximately 80-100 a semester). We will also cover other N3 content such as reading comprehension, grammar, and vocabulary. This course is conducted in Japanese. No textbook required.

JAPANESE LEVEL 10: Quartet (Part 1) (Prerequisite: level 9 or equivalent. Recognition of approximately 300 kanji from the Genki I and II textbooks is expected.)

For students who have mastered basic Japanese grammar with the Genki II textbook content, Quartet is an ideal textbook to advance to the intermediate level. It helps develop all four language skills (reading, writing, speaking, and listening) through the study of grammar and expressions needed to communicate at the intermediate level. This course is designed to provide students with the necessary tools to move up to Level 11. Enrollment in Kanji courses is recommended.

Level 10: Quartet is offered in several parts; these parts should be taken in order, starting from Part 1. It is recommended that all parts be taken at least once before moving to Level 11.

Required Text: Quartet: Intermediate Japanese Across the Four Language Skills Textbook 1, (Part 1: Ch. 1 and Ch. 2)

Section	Dates	Time	# of Classes	Instructor	Location

JAPANESE LEVEL 10: Integrated Approach (Part 4) (Prerequisite: level 9 or equivalent.)

Please Note: We are phasing out these original Level 10 textbook courses; this semester is the last time they will be offered. We recommend that anyone newly joining Level 10 joins the Quartet textbook courses instead (see above).

For students who feel secure with the Genki II textbook content, this class follows Level 9 in the progression from the Genki II textbook, continuing a formal study of Japanese grammar. More advanced grammar, vocabulary, and kanji will be introduced over several semesters. Speaking practice will also be emphasized. This course is designed to provide students with the necessary tools to move up to Level 11. Enrollment in Kanji courses is recommended. Required Text: An Integrated Approach to Intermediate Japanese (Revised Edition), (Part 4: Lessons 13-15)

SPECIAL TOPIC JAPANESE LEVEL 10: JAPAN RIGHT NOW (Recommended for students who have taken Level 10 at least once, or equivalent)

Japan Right Now: This class will examine aspects of today's Japanese society and culture through the latest news. Students will read articles on NHK News Web Easy and actively discuss them. The original articles written with advanced vocabulary and grammar may also be introduced. There will be listening exercises through video clips. For a sample of course material from a previous semester, please see here.

This class is ideal if you want to reinforce any of the following skills:

- Reading comprehension
- Discussion skill
- Vocabulary building
- Kanji building and refresher
- Listening comprehension
- Learning about Japanese society

Each instructor determines the content/articles used which may not be the same between sections. No textbook required.

ABOUT ONLINE COURSES:

Please follow your course schedule as much as possible. If you miss a class, please review any material you missed so that you do not fall behind in the course. Regular practice is important when learning a new language.

In addition, if you will miss a class, it may also be possible to arrange a make-up class in a different online or in-person section in the same semester. Ideally, this should be scheduled for the same material/class as your missed class, but please note that options may be limited. When possible, please reach out to schedule these in advance as slots are first come, first served. More information on how to schedule a make-up class will be provided in the Welcome Email.

Our classes are structured to be interactive and participatory, and you will get the most out of your classes if you can participate by both microphone and video whenever possible. We hope you will participate to whatever degree that you can, even when full engagement is not possible. Please communicate with your instructor about any needs/changes to your attendance and degree of participation (mic/video use ability, missing class, etc.).

ABOUT IN-PERSON COURSES:

Japan Society retains the right to cancel a class at its discretion due to inclement weather or other circumstances. In such circumstances the office will determine the best option for replacement class(es), which may be online or on another date. By signing up for this course, you assume this risk and understand that circumstances may change.

PLEASE NOTE

Cancellation Policy: Cancellations are accepted until 12 pm ET on the business day before the course begins. The Language Center's business days are Monday – Friday, except for most federal holidays. After this deadline, cancellations are not accepted and tuition is not refundable or transferable for any reason (including for credit). Upon cancellation, the tuition paid minus a service charge ($20 for courses) will be refunded. Cancellations are only accepted via phone.

Japan Society also reserves the right to cancel any course if sufficient enrollment is not obtained. In such cases, students already enrolled will receive full refunds (no service charge).

By registering for a course, you accept and agree to the above terms of the cancellation policy.

We do not record these classes, and recording of these classes is prohibited. If a student misses a class, it may be possible to arrange a make-up class in the same semester, if available. More information will be provided in the Welcome Email.

If you need to switch to a different level or section after your course has begun, it may be possible pending availability and is only possible within the same semester (e.g., within the same 10-week semester, 5-week semester, weekend intensive, etc.). Please contact the office.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

Please do your best to have your textbook by the first day of the course.

The following textbooks are required. A limited supply of textbooks is available for purchase at the Language Center on select days, as well as on the first day of in-person courses.
