Japan Society 2025 Annual Dinner Frequently Asked Questions

How much of my contribution is tax-deductible?

Amounts in excess of $2,410 per table of 10 or $241 per individual ticket is tax-deductible. You will receive a tax receipt following the dinner reflecting the actual number of tickets used.

How many guests will be seated at each table?

There are 10 seats per table.

Are there options for vegetarian or other dietary restrictions?

Yes, we offer vegetarian and other dietary options. Please notify us when you RSVP if you have any dietary needs.

Should guests of table sponsors RSVP to Japan Society directly?

No, please have your guests notify you if they are attending, then send the list of guests to Japan Society using the template we have provided.

What is Black Tie?

Black Tie is a formal dress code typically reserved for evening events. For men, it generally requires a black tuxedo, though a well-tailored black suit may also be appropriate. For women, a floor-length gown or sophisticated cocktail dress is standard.

Is parking available at the venue?

The Sheraton New York Times Square does not offer valet parking. However, there is a parking garage located next door at S&P Parking on 53rd Street between 7th and 6th Avenue.
